NEW: Pope Francis Proclaims Year of St. Joseph

In a new Apostolic Letter entitled "Patris corde" ("With a Father's Heart"), Pope Francis recalls the 150 anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. To mark the occasion, the Holy Father has proclaimed a "Year of St. Joseph" from December 8, fulfillment of God's will." It also added that the pope

Living the Liturgy at Home Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Prayer

Lord our God, in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, you have become one of us. During this Christmas season, help us to enter more deeply into the mystery of the Incarnation. Help us to recognize your presence in the Holy Child in the manger, in the sacraments of the Church, and in the people around us: in family, friends, and strangers, knowing that Christ was born for all and that we are all children of God. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Conversation Questions

How does our family resolve conflict and show forgiveness toward one another? Do we treat everyone in our family with dignity and respect?
Focus on the figure of the baby Jesus in the Nativity scene. What does this child's arrival mean for our salvation and redemption from sin and death?

Faith in Action

When tough decisions have to be made, how are they made in your family? Are issues brought to prayer? Are trusted family members, friends, or colleagues consulted? How is this process communicated to children and are older children invited into the process? How we model bringing God into our everyday lives speaks volumes to young children

Did you know?

...that the Congregation of the Holy Cross is a religious community in the Church that is made up of sisters, brothers, and priests? The members of the Holy Family are the patrons for this religious community. The sisters are dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, the brothers to St. Joseph, and the Holy Cross priests to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

REFLECTIONS

By Bishop Christian

Christmas isn't only a Norman Rockwell painting of little children roping open presents while Mother takes the turkey out of the oven. Christmas can also be a season when the ache of loneliness rises up to swell the throat. It may be a day of conflict within families, a time when loss floods us in a fog of grief, a celebration that makes some feel outside in the cold when others seem cozily within.

Into this ache of earthly life, the Light was born. It was a painful morning. The first air that Jesus took into his tiny lungs was cold. Gnawing hunger filled his belly. He was separated from the warm body which had enfolded him, whose voice he had known, whose heartbeat had been so near. This new life felt apart and alone.

His mother lifts him to herself. She too shakes from the cold of the separation of birth. Perhaps she senses in his cry: "Hold me. Wrap me tight. Keep me safe. How could I have left the full glory of splendor to come into this finite space? This world is so dark, so cold..."

We have no idea about how much newborn baby Jesus knew or remembered. But we might wonder if he ever asked, "Could I just go home now, back into the warmth and never-ending circle of love in God?" But he came into our limited and broken world. He came—for us.

In the grace of this Christmas morning, tiptoe to the manger. Look into his eyes. He knows. You and I, we are not alone. He is here. That is what he burst into the world to do—to be Emmanuel, God with us. The darkness of our distress has become a holy night! The Word has become flesh and dwells among us.
